

The results of all candidates will be analysed, by date of birth, to determine if a statistical age-adjustment is required. In recent years, no such adjustment has been applied. In light of the recent ruling of the Office of the Schools Adjudicator a modified approach to calculating age-adjustment will be adopted from October 2018.