

21st July 2020

Dear Parent

CSSE UPDATE

As the CSSE office is awaiting further guidance from the Department for Education (DfE) there has not been a decision made in respect of a definite test date for 11+ testing for 2021 Entry to secondary school.

CSSE test centre letters will not be sent out as published in July 2020 but will be posted out in September 2020 with finalised dates and timings.

At this moment in time we have to prepare as though the tests will take place on Saturday 19th September, but if the DfE grant a delay then the preferred provisional date for testing is in mid October. However this is dependent on receiving advice from the DfE.

The next written communication will be your test centre letter.

Any update will be displayed on our website. Please do not contact the CSSE office as it is closed until September 2020.

We thank you for your patience.
