		Some schools have a minimum pass mark. This column indicates 11+ test scores that will not be admitted.	This column indicates the lowest score obtained by any entrant in the last four years. Applications below these scores may still be worthwhile.	In the last four years every pupil with a score at this level was eventually offered a place.	This column indicates 11+ test scores that will almost certainly ensure a place is awarded. This score is calculated – based on the last four years – to be well-above what is required.	Schools are allowing parents to visit. If your child has achieved over the minimum pass mark, and you are still unsure which school to choose, you may find it helpful to revisit a school.
